DIXON HIGH school students who have plugged away on their textbooks while they more often than not sacrificed the applause that comes to champions in other student endeavors finally learned that they, too, are heroes.

They were commended for their "touchdowns" on the scholastic gridiron by an estimated 225 persons at last night's Scholastic Honor banquet, believed the first ever held here. Fifty-one DHS students found the applause from those 225 persons genuine and given with sincere respect.

That applause also was found long overdue by everyone of the men and women asked to comment during the evening by Toastmaster Jim Bales. All appealed to the Dixon Woman's club and American Association of University Women, sponsors of the honor banquet, to make the event an annual affair.

MAYOR WILLIAM Slothower pointed out the fact that no student in more than half a century had received the overt tribute of Dixon citizenry such as given last night to the scholastically top 51 boys and girls in DHS.

The mayor declared he's been around long enough to know — "I graduated from Dixon high school in 1902!"

THE ESTEEM which scholastically top students are held by the public perhaps was best expressed last night by Principal E. J. Frazer.

He pointed out the difficulty a teenager experiences in maintaining patience for rewards. They're at an impatient age and want any rewards coming their way to make their appearance immediately.

"That's why sports appeal to them. A touchdown or a basket brings rapid applause, and they know immediately they have won another's tribute," Frazer declared.

But, Frazer continued, it takes maturity of mind, self-discipline and objectivity to be a good scholar.

He told them: "That's what it takes to be leaders in your community after leaving school, and the people here tonight are telling you that you have demonstrated your worth to take up those leadership reins."

"You are not here because you got grades of A and B, or because you have high IQs, but because you have worked hard enough to win recognition no matter what your IQ rating may be."

THERE ARE at least another 150 students, Frazer said, who have as much ability as those 51 honored last night, but who have not put that ability to its full use.

Perhaps with any other group of students the talk by John Hall Thompson, featured speaker, would have missed its mark. He left joking behind to explain how students and adults may expect to find their lives affected by Korea.

IT WASN'T an "entertaining" talk as most speakers' choice for a high school group. But the interest displayed in it by the students present showed he chose well when he elected to give them a realistic, detailed account of a world situation.

Another Polish Airman Deserts Russians

Flies MIG To Denmark, Asks Asylum

Crashlands Plane Into Rocky Field, To Escape Soviets

ROENNE, Bornholm, Denmark (AP)—Another Soviet-built MIG-15—said to be the Communist world's fastest fighter plane—was dumped into Allied laps today by a young Polish pilot who crash-landed his prize on this rocky Baltic island.

Unconfirmed reports said he told Danish police his MIG plane was of a newer type than that landed on Bornholm on March 5 in another freedom dash by Polish Pilot Lt. Franciszek Jarecki.

The refugee pilot was reported to have said he was a close friend of Jarecki, whose MIG was the first to fall undamaged into the hands of Allied experts. Jarecki is now in the United States where he is seeking citizenship so he can become an officer in the U. S. air force. His plane was returned to Poland after it was given a careful onceover by Western aviation experts.

Had From View

Eyewitnesses caught a glimpse of the MIG landed today before it was hastily wrapped up in a huge canvas by the Danish military. They said they could discern no difference between it and the plane flown by Jarecki.

Tight-lipped police gave out little information except that the pilot had asked for political asylum.

An official announcement said the pilot today told police he broke away from a formation of MIG fighters flying over Polish territory.

Bornholm is 60 miles north—only a few minutes jet time—from the Baltic Sea coast of Poland.

According to eyewitnesses, the plane circled over Roenne for 75 minutes before landing on a training field at Almegaard army camp, a few miles north of the city.

No Airfield

The camp has no airfield and military personnel there held their breath as the plane roared down onto the rough field. It swayed and bucked across the grass, then halted in a small group of trees in one corner of the training ground. One of its wings collided with a tree branch but the damage was reported slight.

The young pilot climbed out of the cockpit apparently unhurt.

Western military experts generally consider a MIG-15 a prize catch. About three weeks ago, the U. N. command in the Far East offered $100,000 to any Communist pilot in Korea who brought his MIG-15 undamaged to the Allied side. Thus far, there has been no announcement of any takers.

At the time of the offer by Gen. Mark Clark, a U. S. air force spokesman in Washington said it applied only to fliers of Russian-type jets operating in the Korean War area, not to those in Europe.

Korean Victory Key to Asia's Fate: Thompson

Honor Banquet Speaker Fears Time Running Out

John H. Thompson, distinguished Chicago Tribune military writer and observer of world affairs, gave a local audience a grim analysis of the free world's fight against Communism here last night.

Speaking at a dinner honoring Dixon High school's top scholars, Thompson pictured for his youthful listeners a future that would necessitate them being heavily involved with the military defense of our nation and its allies.

Europe's Backdoor

He declared that a military victory in Korea might stem the Communist attempt to dominate Asia, which, he said, Lenin once described as the backdoor to Europe. But he also declared that military experts generally agreed that time was fast running out, a factor that may spur efforts to effect that military victory.

The banquet in the Loveland Community House was sponsored by the Dixon Woman's club and the Dixon chapter of the American Association of University Women. It was attended by 225 persons, including 51 students who were honored guests.

In providing his audience with a backdrop on Korea, the speaker carefully outlined the decisions at Yalta, establishing the 38th parallel, the postwar occupation of Korea and the State department's toning down of early information from North Korea and from China warning of the Communist threat.

The latter point, Thompson declared, led to the withdrawal of Allied forces from South Korea and the eventual sweep of the Russian-trained North Koreans into the defenseless southern half of that nation.

"Finest" Army

He spoke also of the courageous Eighth army, once badly beaten, which survived early crushing defeats to become one of the finest armies in the United States history. He attributed the Eighth army's comeback to Gen. Matthew Ridgway, who personally visited the troops to stiffen morale and who urged greater use of their firepower to combat the enemy's overwhelming advantage in manpower.

Of today's situation, Thompson believed a military victory could be achieved. He said that at the present rate UN forces are suffering 80,000 casualties in the war of attrition.

Mrs. R. F. Krahler, new president of the Woman's club; A. H. Lancaster, superintendent of the Dixon schools; Mayor William Slothower; B. J. Frazer, principal of the Dixon high school; and Fran Coughlin, Chicago, continuity director of WGN and panelist on the television show, "Down You Go."

Medals Presented

Cliff Coughlin, city editor of The Evening Telegraph, presented medals to nine students who were judged by the DHS faculty as the leading students in various academic classifications. (Winners of those awards are pictured above.)

Sponsors of the awards were the City National Bank, Dixon National Bank, Senior chamber of commerce, Junior chamber of commerce, Dixon Ministerial association, Dixon Evening Telegraph, Rock River chapter, Illinois Society of Professional Engineers, Lee County Bar association, and the Lee County Medical association.

Mrs. Charles Johnson and Mrs. Wilbur Fufts were commended for their work in arranging for the banquet.

Aid Spending Disappointing To Sen. Taft

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Taft (R-Ohio) said today he is "very much disappointed" at President Eisenhower's conclusions that this nation could not spend less than 50 billion dollars, a year on defense and foreign aid.

Taft, the senate majority leader, made this comment in a talk at a breakfast of Ohio farmers.

Such expenditures, Taft said, would mean an overall government budget of possibly 72 billion dollars annually.

If this is true, Taft said, "there is no way to escape taxes, deficit spending or both."

Taft said this problem should be studied to see whether 40 billion might be enough to spend for security.

Public Not Liable For Costs in Suits Of Personal Taxes

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—County collectors suing in justice of the peace courts to collect personal property taxes lack the authority to advance court costs, Attorney Gen. Latham Castle has held.

The public is not liable for costs in such proceedings under an appellate court ruling, Castle said Tuesday in a formal opinion issued at the request of State's Atty. Frank H. Masters Jr. of Will County.

Air Force Uncovers Jet Feats

Flight Over Arctic, Non-Stop B-47 Trip To England Told

FT. WORTH, Tex. (AP)—The air force today disclosed: 1. The first jet airplane flight over the North Pole.

2. The first nonstop flight of six jet B-47 bombers across the Atlantic. Two B-47s flew to Fairford, England, from Limestone, Me., in five hours and 38 minutes April 7. They returned to the United States two weeks later.

3. The breaking of all distance and endurance records for jet airplanes—by a B-47 which, refueled in mid-air, last year flew nonstop slightly more than 12,000 miles.

The latter flight was over the southern and western parts of the United States. The airplane operated out of, and returned to, Edwards Air Force Base, Calif.

The unprecedented flights were made public at a convention of aviation writers.

The air force said the first crossing of the polar region by jet was accomplished by a Boeing B-47 Stratofortress more than a year ago.

The swept-wing bomber took off from Eielson air force base near Fairbanks, Alaska, headed out over the Arctic ocean, circled the top of the world and returned.

The exact length of the flight was not disclosed. The B-47 is in the 600-miles-an-hour class and has a range of more than 3,000 miles without refueling.

The transatlantic flight involved two B-47s from the strategic air command 306th medium bombardment wing at MacDill air force base, Tampa, Fla. Their average speed for the 3,120-mile eastward crossing was 555 miles an hour. The flight was accomplished without aerial refueling.

Okay School Field For 4-H Fair

The Dixon board of education today voted to allow Lee county 4-H groups to hold a fair in August on the football practice field of the Dixon high school.

Decision was reached at a joint noon meeting of the board of education and Dixon chamber of commerce representatives.

The board approved the practice field as the location of the fair, to be held on Aug. 24, 25 and 26, with the stipulation that the chamber of commerce and the 4-H units be held responsible for the condition of the field after the fair is over.

Discussion today centered primarily on the damage that could be incurred on the practice field as the result of livestock refuse and stake holes left after the fair tents are removed.

The sanitation problem left by the livestock and the condition of the field after the animals left was believed to be minor in the event that the field is properly handled.

Legislature Favors Canal As Rec Area

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—The Illinois Legislature has gone on record in favor of federal government conversion of the Hennepin Canal property in Bureau and Henry Counties into a recreation area.

In a resolution adopted by the Senate and House Tuesday, Congress was urged to designate the converted area a national park or place it under the supervision of the U. S. Fish and wildlife service.

The outmoded waterway would serve as many as 500,000 persons annually. A legislative commission which offered the resolution reported.

Senate Group Told Troops Transported

President To Be Asked for Policy On Allies' Actions

WASHINGTON (AP)—Investigating senators called today for a statement from President Eisenhower himself on Allied nations' trade with Red China, after hearing testimony that two British-owned vessels transported Red Chinese troops along the China coast last year.

The testimony came from Robert Kennedy at a public hearing before the senate investigations subcommittee of which he is an assistant counsel. It drew angry comment from some of the senators present.

Ike To Be Informed Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) the committee chairman, said he would have a letter to Eisenhower drawn up this afternoon.

In the swiftly-moving hearing Kennedy testified that:

1. Western Allies' trade with Red China has shown "tremendous" increases, and that 100 ships flying the British flag have engaged in the China trade in the first three and a half months of this year.

2. Every country among the U.S. Allies has hauled at least one cargo to the Reds, containing items which Washington considers to be "strategic" but which the Allied powers contended were non-strategic.

3. The Defense department has refused to name either the disputed commodities he mentioned in point 2 or the ships which carried them, on grounds that this is "classified information."

Kennedy said the British ships which he reported had hauled Red troops were owned by companies in Hong Kong.

John Leddy, deputy assistant secretary of state for economic affairs, was called to the witness chair. In sometimes stormy exchanges, he testified that the Pentagon's refusal was in line "with the government policy" and that to name the ships or commodities carried might weaken U. S. efforts to curb such commerce.

Known of Transport Asked about Kennedy's testimony that ships of two British-owned firms had transported Communist troops, Leddy said the State department was "apprehensive in July, 1951, about one of the ships concerned."

He said the ship was of Panamanian registry, adding the State department took it up with the Panama government and a month or two later was successful in canceling the registry of the ship.

Subcommittee Counsel Francis Flanagan asked if the State department was advised that the vessels were registered in the name of the Hong Kong firms.

Leddy replied that the department knew the British firm was "the owner, manager or agent" of the ship. In his testimony he did not name the ship or the British firm.

Kennedy named one firm. He said a ship owned by one of these firms, the Wheelock-Marden Co., also had been hired by the U. S. Mutual Security agency (MSA) to haul foreign aid goods.

The ship that Kennedy said handled MSA goods in February, 1952, was identified as the Charles Dickens. He said the information of the subcommittee staff was that the transportation of Communist troops by another ship of the Wheelock-Marden Co. occurred at a later date.

Assistant Youth Adviser Starts New Job This Week

ROLF E. VOGEN Assistant Youth Adviser

OREGON—This will be the last time that I will be writing a column for The Telegraph. I will leave the end of this week to assume the duties as farm adviser in Jo Daviess county.

During the past five years it has been a pleasure for me to work with the people of Ogle county. Through the cooperation of many local people we have been able to develop a fine 4-H club and youth program. Without the effort of local people this would not have been possible.

JUNE 1 MARKS the deadline for 4-H club enrollments for 1953. There are still some club members who have not mailed enrollment cards to the office in Oregon. I would like to urge all club members to check their records and make sure that they have enrolled for the coming year.

Project books are not mailed to club members until an enrollment card is received in the office. Club members who wait will have difficulty in keeping their books up to date and keeping records of their 4-H activities.

JUNE 1 IS also the deadline for 4-H camp applications. We will be limited this year to 65 or 70 campers from Ogle county. Most of those applications have already been filled. A few still remain. However, any club member who wants to be sure of an opportunity to attend camp should make application immediately.

Application should be made at the Farm Bureau office and campers should make a down payment of $1.50 or pay the entire camp fee of $14.50.

"SOIL CONSERVATION is a major problem for all the people of Ogle county, since better soil brings greater production and, in turn, a better standard of living to the people."

ATTEND CONFERENCE OHIO—Mrs. Guy Eyer, Mrs. Bertha Balcom, Mrs. Dewey Johnson, Mrs. Fred Sullivan and Mrs. Clayton Guthrie attended the WSCS Star conference at the Methodist church in Aurora Friday.

Egypt Shows Total Blindness to Its World Responsibilities

The rapid deterioration of British-Egyptian relations over the Suez Canal has startled western statesmen. Reliable accounts from Cairo are that Premier Naguib and other Egyptian leaders are totally preoccupied with just one thing: forcing British troops out of Suez.

Secretary of State Dulles is said to have heard little talk from them about Middle East defense arrangements, and slim appreciation of the canal's strategic value in the free world's defense.

That is exactly why Anglo-Egyptian negotiations on the issue have broken down. The Egyptians insist Britain agree to the withdrawal of its troops first, before any discussion is undertaken on protection of the vital British base at Suez.

The British, however, are unwilling to withdraw until they have assurance the base will be maintained, and made available to the West in the event of war.

Dulles has taken a stand in Cairo substantially like the British, and the Egyptians promptly have hailed this as evidence of an American-British "conspiracy" exists.

Apparently the Egyptians have passed beyond the reasoning stage. If they were reasoning, they would see a few things better than they do. For instance:

The British have shown every sign of intent to withdraw their troops once the Suez base is properly secured. So withdrawal itself is not really an issue. Only the timing and conditions are in debate.

Egyptian insistence that no conditions be attached represents a narrow, provincial outlook which cannot be justified by modern statesmen facing the world as it is today. The Suez base is one of the most vital on earth. The Egyptians are behaving as if the transfer of a corner gas station rather than a great military bastion was at stake.

The free world has genuine sympathy for the aspirations of the Egyptians toward greater independence and self-reliance. It can have slight patience, however, with an attitude of total blindness such as the Egyptians are showing toward their wider world responsibilities.

If Russian communism were to invade the Middle East successfully, the independence the Egyptians now seek with single-minded frenzy would vanish with astounding speed.

Not Exactly Shrinking Violets

For a couple of decades the fellows in congress have been yelping loudly about the government's use of "propaganda" to perpetuate itself in power. They mean, of course, the practice of grinding out news releases and making endless speeches to put across the administration viewpoint.

The danger is real. Any government has at its disposal vast machinery for keeping itself in a strong position before the public. And its control over important sources of information makes it extremely hard to get a balanced picture of administrative operations and motives.

But the lawmakers who serve as one check on the executive branch don't exactly shrink from publicizing their own activities.

A survey shows many send out "newsletters" to constituents or local newspapers from one to four times a month. The paper and envelopes for these come from their $800 stationery allowance (per member each year). The busy lawmakers also make 1000 radio recordings a week for home use, at the capitol studio, not to mention 19 TV films each week. They spend about $14,000 a week on radio and TV (their own money).

If you could monitor some of these presentations, you'd probably hear quite a bit about how government people talk too much.

Many Wives Would Like to Restart With Clean Slate

A wife in Halifax, N. S., is going to get a chance a lot of women might envy.

After four years of marriage she is going to get a completely new start as far as her husband is concerned.

The husband, victim of amnesia following an automobile accident, doesn't even remember having been married.

So every mistake his wife has ever made in her marriage is erased. Yet, she has the value of several years' experience living with her husband.

She can start all over with a clean slate, knowing all about him, and fully aware of what mistakes to avoid in the future.

AN OPPORTUNITY MANY WOMEN WILL ENVY

It's a good chance charm matriarchs have a great many wives will not doubt envy. For there is no wife so wise that she doesn't, at some time or other, wish she could have known at the beginning of her marriage, the things she learned after a few years of marital life.

And there are probably few wives who don't wish they could wipe the slate clean of past mistakes and, with knowledge gained through experience, start all over with the same husband.

There is one thing, however, wives overlook in such wishful thinking.

The real security in marriage often comes from the knowledge that it has withstood disappointments, heartaches and misunderstandings.

A marriage can be called a success when a couple can look back over a past that had troubles as well as happiness, and say: "We came through it all together, even though the going was rough at times."

HOLLYWOOD—(NEA)—Behind the Screen: Bob Mitchum's working in the first 3-D picture about a professional prize fighter but he's wishing some other brawny male had been picked by destiny for the chore.

Faked blows look like faked blows in three dimensions so Bob's letting Jack Palance connect with solid blows in their fight scenes for "Second Chance." And he's growing between scenes:

"We're throwing legitimate punches and my brains are being jarred loose."

There's been talk of a feature-length movie based on the father-and-daughter characters Charles Farrell and Gale Storm play in their half-hour telefilms, "My Little Margie," but Charles's hoping they won't be rushed into a fast deal.

"We won't celebrate our first anniversary on the air until September," he says, "and our show is getting better all the time. I hope they'll wait on the movie idea until it's demanded by our audience."

Sign-of-the-times note: Stars working this week in movies for theaters: 11.

Stars working in films for television: 44.

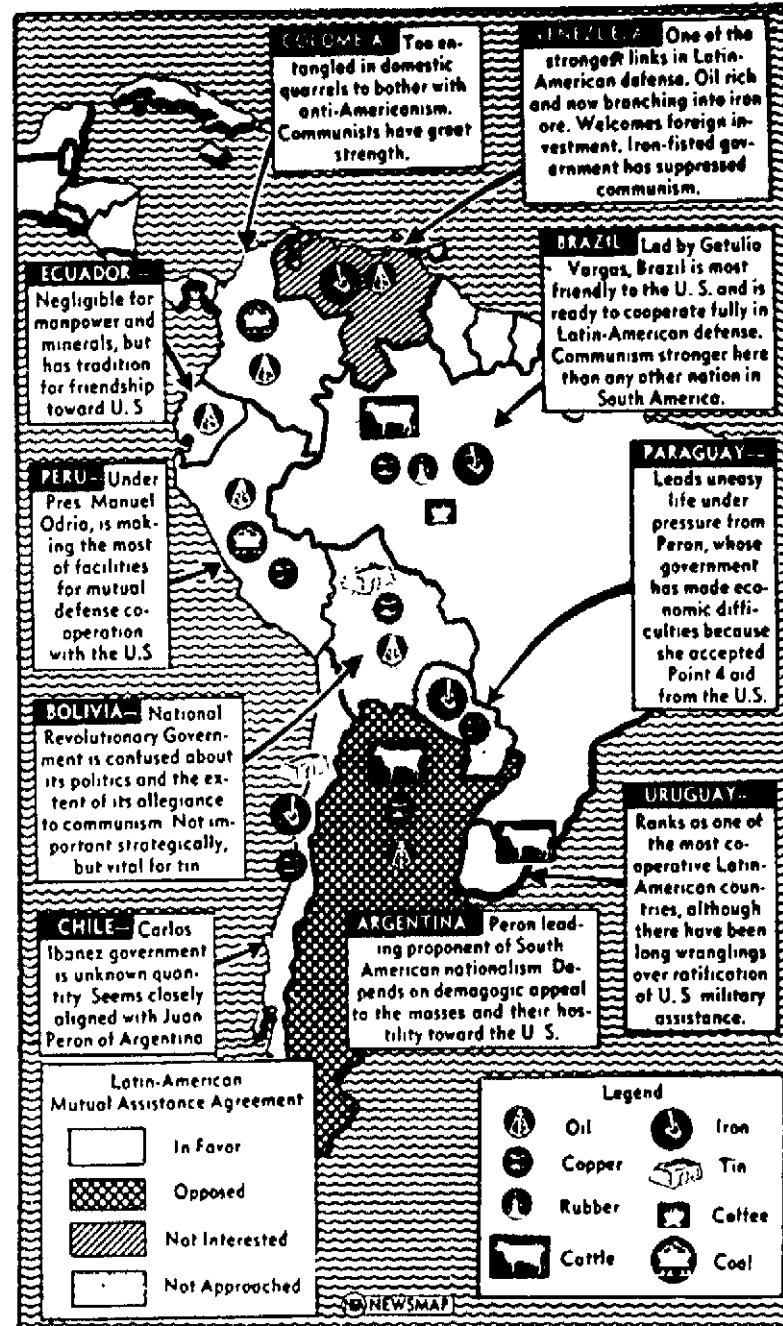

Susan Hayward, who's been wanting to return to meanie roles for a change, gets her wish. She's almost sure to be Messalina in "Demetrius the Gladiator," sequel to "The Robe."

ALAN FOR LANZA
Insiders who know how other "difficult" stars have found it impossible to work in Hollywood after being fired by one studio are saying that Mario Lanza will get no offers from other majors now that MGM has fired him. It's the code of the west.

The Terry Moore-Robert Wagner marriage flash should have been spread by "Pony Express" instead of the wires. And the studio is burning over identification of Wagner as the son of a millionaire.

Dean Miller of CBS-TV's "The Dean Miller of CBS-TV's 'There's One in Every Family' and Betty Ann Grove of 'The Big Payoff' on the same network are on the same romantic wavelength, too.

Irving Berlin's follow-up picture to "There's No Business Like Show Business" at Fox will be a musical partly based on his own life, with the greatest footage devoted to his music box reviews. Grace Moore rose to stardom through one of Berlin's early stage musicals.

WHAT'S DOING WITH SOUTHERN NEIGHBORS?—Anti-U.S. sentiment has been growing among the "good neighbors" of South America. It has been spread by nationalists, President Peron of Argentina, and Communist elements who have used "Yankee imperialism" as their key phrase in smearing the U.S. President Eisenhower recognized the critical situation by sending his brother, Milton, as an envoy to study Latin-American relations. Newsmap shows status of the 10 most important South American nations and the important resources of each. The Mutual Assistance Agreement provides that the U.S. and the other signatories agree to exchange materials for defense and cooperate in their use when necessary.

The Doctor Says:

Use of Iodized Salt Cuts Thyroid Ills of Youngsters

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.

A certain proportion of persons who have simple enlargements of the thyroid gland in the neck will sometime develop what is commonly known as toxic goiter or Graves' disease.

There is almost undoubtedly less toxic goiter today than there was even 20 or 25 years ago, and a large part of the credit for this can be given to the smaller number of those persons with simple thyroid enlargements.

This, in turn, appears to be principally the result of the wider use of iodized salt, particularly by children, which greatly reduces the number of simple thyroid enlargements.

This is a good example of the prevention of disease, or preventive medicine, as it is sometimes called.

Many years ago studies carried out in Michigan showed that school children in counties where the iodine was practically absent from the water had a high proportion of thyroid enlargement.

In Houghton County where iodine was almost entirely absent from the water, about 65 per cent of the youngsters had simple goiter; in McComb County, where the iodine content of the water was the highest of the four counties studied, only about 26 per cent of the school children had simple thyroid enlargements.

After this was discovered it was decided to urge the use of salt to which iodine had been added in homes in those counties where the iodine content of the water was low or absent. The result was an enormous drop in the frequency of goiter among the children.

It then appeared that adding iodine to table salt might be simpler. Some thought that adding iodine to the salt might be dangerous, but careful studies proved no harm. For example, one survey of over 50,000 children four years after beginning the use of iodized salt showed not a single child had developed the slightest ill effect from the use of iodized salt.

GOITER CASES USE SALT

Iodine can be added to refined salt or can be supplied by natural, unrefined salt. The latter also has been done with good results in the prevention of simple "medicated" salt is not justified.

Since the "natural" iodine in the food is low in some parts of the country (the Great Lakes goiter belt, in particular), this use proved a boon to many children who would otherwise have had trouble later.

Questions and Answers

Pegler Attacks Press for Failure to Take Sides on Compulsory Social Security Issue and Fight It Out

The only expression on the subject of the press in the Constitution of the United States says merely that Congress shall pass no law abridging the freedom of the press. A superstitious has grown up, however, that the press is a sacred institution enjoying the protection of taboos akin to those which impair freedom of religion by forbidding public argument over religion.

There is no subject more deserving to be thoroughly discussed than religion but, thanks mainly to the timidity of our press, no important subject is discussed less. We are, on the whole, a very religious nation. But we do not argue religion and it is a hard and fast rule of well-mannered people to refrain from introducing religion into social conversations.

The press is a human institution run by men and women no better in any way, as a group, than the managers of big business, our politicians or the lawyers. Most of the executives are "educated" men in the conventional meaning which implies a minimum college degree. They are, as a group, first class Americans as to patriotism but they would have a hard time accommodating to the Constitution certain issues which they either support or support by default in that they fail to attack them. Social Security is one of those issues.

Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby, a newspaper editor, found herself in an embarrassing situation when she took the job of administering Social Security and then was reminded that her own Houston Post had upheld the group of housewives in Marshall, Tex., in their refusal, on constitutional grounds, to steal money from their housemaids and turn it over to the federal treasury. These Marshall girls held that if the housemaids wanted to buy government insurance that was a deal between the maids and the government.

Reminded of her own paper's editorial approval of the stand taken by the Marshall girls, Mrs. Hobby retorted with total irrelevance that domestic servants had a right to contribute to their own security. Nobody has argued to the contrary and the issue still remains, now before the U. S. court of appeals, whether the government can compel Mrs. Brown or Mrs. Smith, to filch money from a housemaid who does not want to buy social security, and give it to the government.

Not only Mrs. Hobby's paper but all the papers constituting the American press, have an editorial obligation to take sides on this problem and on compulsory social security as a whole, and fight it out. But few of them have touched the issue.

I am convinced that some of the defaulters believed that, constitutional or not, the "people" wanted this thing, and shrunk from challenging public resentment even to protect the greater but invisible public interest which was threatened with harm in this radical violation of the Constitution.

At this late date, a court decision reaffirming the people's right to refuse to buy insurance would shake our economy as an earthquake shakes a town. Possibly, for that reason, the courts will flinch as the press has flinched and true Marxian socialism will be fastened on us beyond hope of revocation.

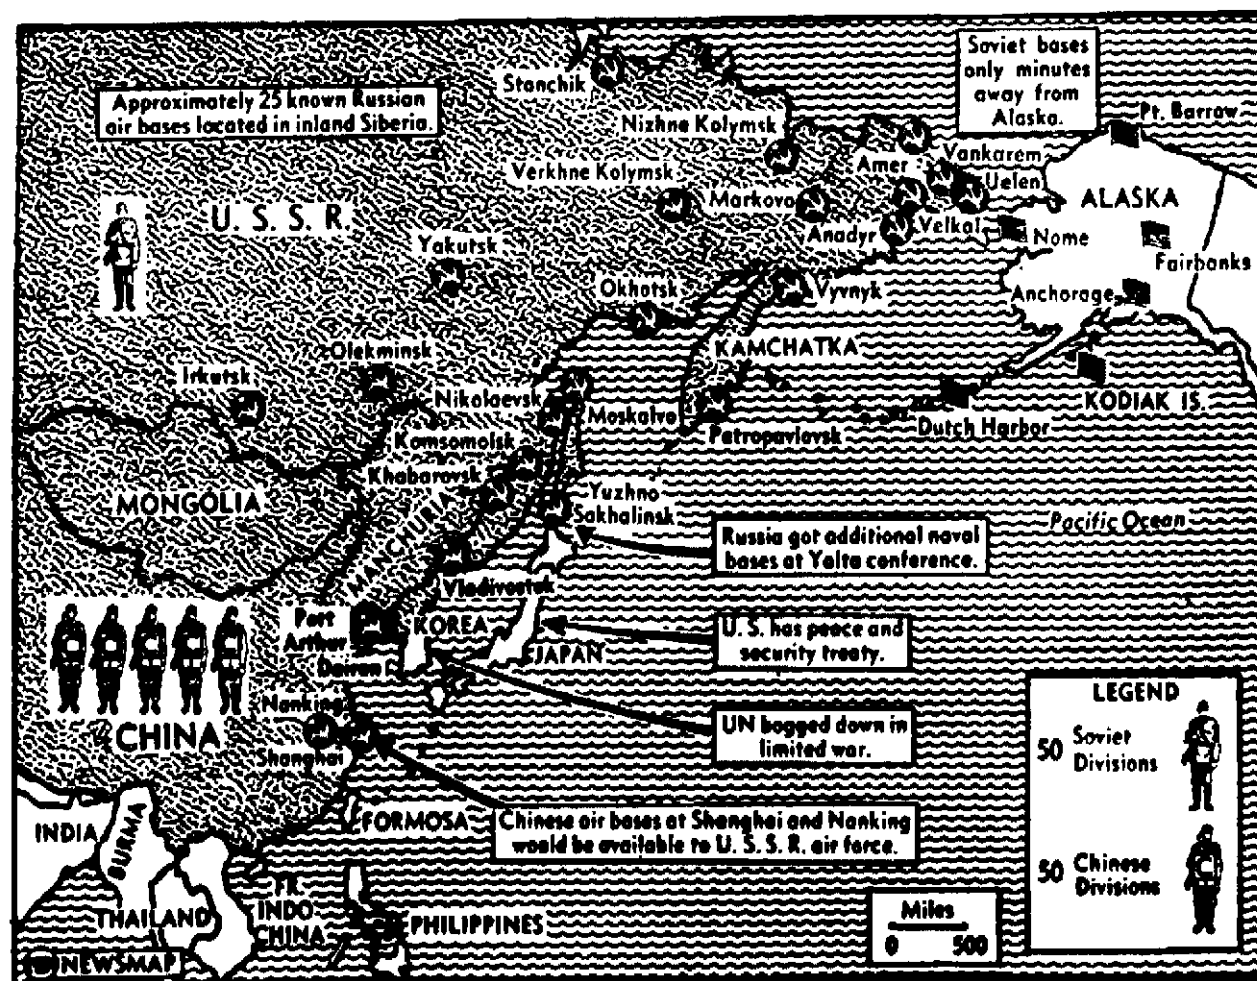

Senator Joe McCarthy has recently examined an editor of a sort, formerly a Communist, who claims, however, to have renounced Communism, on matters absolutely apart from his editorial expressions. The editor, like those adroit Communist agitators in the automobile shops in 1937, immediately set up a false issue.

The Communist unioners howled that they were being disemployed because they were union enthusiasts, and ran to the labor relations board which was loaded with Reds. The employers answered that they were stagers and troublemakers.

Now what integrity, what honesty of opinion and reporting can we expect henceforth from the mighty Luce weeklies, beholden as the owner and his wife are to Ike for spurious, tainted political honors?

I see no threat to freedom of the press in any mere inquiry into our practices, standards and qualifications. I am quite willing to stand inspection and defend my conduct and my principles.

Ready Camp for Girl Scouts

Camp John Ralston was the scene of much activity the past week-end when parents, scout leaders and members of the Rotary club met to prepare the camp for the opening of the 1953 season June 1.

Mrs. George Stiles, camp chairman, and her committee, Mrs. Glen Rosebrook, Mrs. William Barthelme, Mrs. Omer Thomas, Mrs. Oscar Gardner and Mrs. Lawrence Cappa, supervised the camp clean-up sessions and are planning another work-day May 24, when the remaining work will be completed.

Clyde Yount, Pius Burgard, E. M. Bastian, Lee McGinnis and Elmer Gasmund repaired and stained the permanent tent floors and the following Rotarians erected tents and cleaned the camp grounds: Paul Armstrong, William Haarbauer, Herbert Zeien, Donald Siedel, Sam Owens, Ray Zimmer and Charles Holmes.

Boy Scouts Help

A number of local Boy Scouts assisted the adult leaders in cleaning the general camp area, the large recreation hall and the permanent cottages.

Approximately 40 leaders and parents spent Sunday afternoon cleaning the kitchen and dining hall. All the dishes and cooking utensils were checked and cleaned; screen windows replaced and camp equipment repaired. One group checked and repaired all the camp cots and outdoor cooking utensils. Following the working hours, a scramble picnic was held.

Since the project of preparing such a large area for safe and sanitary camping is so immense, the hours and labor donated by the friends of Dixon Girl Scouts is greatly appreciated by the Scout leaders, camp committee and association president, Mrs. Allan Boyd.

To Work May 24
It is hoped the final work day, May 24, will be well attended so the entire camp can be completely in readiness upon the arrival of the first scouts for troop camping, June 1. This Sunday's session will also close with a picnic supper.

15,000 Flee Lowlands in Louisiana as Rivers Rise

BATON ROUGE, La.—(AP)—Louisiana's coastal lowlands faced a new flood crisis from the Gulf of Mexico today as rising streams to the north forced 15,000 persons from their homes in a 100 million dollar flood.

While swollen bayous and rivers poured tons of water toward the Gulf, the coastal residents braced against the possibility of inundation from wind-whipped tides.

Streams were higher at some points than in 1940, when high tides blew into already flooded sections and covered several coastal communities with six feet of water.

Crisis Today
Observers believed the crisis would come today. If tides remain moderate another 24 hours, they think there is a chance that streams and backwater areas can handle the water.

The threat centers around Crowley, in Southwest Louisiana. Overflowing bayous have forced evacuations at Mermentau, Evangeline, Midland and Esterwood and sent the flood lapping into the outskirts of Crowley.

The Weather Bureau predicted winds from the south, putting the area in extreme danger if tides are high.

The stricken area was a broad belt arching from the southwest corner of the state, near the Texas border, through Central Louisiana to the east-central boundary with Mississippi. The belt is more than 200 miles long and 100 miles wide at points.

Airlift Aid
Four big Air Force cargo planes flew to the quartermaster depot at Carswell AFB near Ft. Worth, Tex., to airlift 27,000 pounds of tents and cots to flood victims.

Agriculture Commissioner Dave Pearce placed crop damage alone at 100 million dollars. Damage to highways and private property would run into more millions.

President's Tax Program Is Outlined

WASHINGTON (AP)—This is the tax program which President Eisenhower outlined in his nationwide radio address Tuesday night:

1. No action by Congress to advance the personal income tax cut of 10 per cent due to take effect Jan. 1. Some veteran House members want to advance the date to July 1.
2. Retention of the excess profits tax on business, expiring July 1, for another six months.
3. Indefinite postponement of a drop of five percentage points in the tax on corporation incomes, now due to take effect next April 1.
4. Indefinite postponement of reductions in excise (sales) taxes also due to take effect automatically next April 1. Among others, these include taxes on autos (due to drop from 10 to 7 per cent), gasoline (from 2 to 1 1/2 cents a gallon), cigarettes (from 8 to 7 cents a pack), beer (from $9 to $8 a barrel) and whisky (from $10.50 to $9 a proof gallon).
5. Indefinite postponement of a hike from 1 1/2 to 2 per cent of the social security payroll tax paid by both employees and employers on the first $3,600 of a worker's annual income. Under present law, the increase is due to take effect Jan. 1.

Squirts Motorist, Dixon Youth Fined $3 Here Tuesday

A new twist was given Tuesday to the seasonal epidemics of spring fever that break out among Dixon teenagers.

A Dixon boy, about 17, was arrested yesterday by Police Chief Frank Tyne on a disorderly conduct charge involving the "shooting" of a passing motorist with a squirt gun.

Donald Barton, Dixon, was fined $3 and costs when he pleaded guilty Tuesday night to the charge before Justice of the Peace Lawrence E. Boos.

According to Tyne, the squirt gun incident occurred near Highland avenue and Seventh street. Barton, who was driving a car, "shot" at approaching motorists as they were about to pass.

Tyne said that police will crack down heavily on any future action of this type because the safety of innocent persons is being jeopardized.

He emphasized the fact that a startled motorist with a spray of water dashing against his face could easily lose control of an automobile.

Under the law, offenders can be fined as high as $100 for continued practice of squirt gun antics involving the safety of innocent persons.

Sterling Man Pays $10 Fine

Edmundo Rodriguez, 22, Sterling, was fined $10 and costs today after pleading guilty to a charge of driving without a driver's license.

Rodriguez was brought before Justice of the Peace Edwin Merriam on a complaint signed by Lee County Sheriff Charles Redebough.

The defendant was arrested following an accident at 1:30 a.m. today in which he turned his car over while driving on Pennsylvania avenue. He was not injured.

According to the sheriff's report, Rodriguez lost control of the car which turned over in the front yard of a residence adjacent to the avenue.

Highway Toll Is Up Again

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Accidents on Illinois highways last month killed 180 persons, a 18 year high for April, the Public Works and Buildings Department reported Tuesday. The toll in April, 1952, was 139.

Reports circulated that the U. N. would modify the proposal put forward last week at Panmunjom to handle 48,500 prisoners who refuse to return to communism.

There was no confirmation of the report at Gen. Mark Clark's headquarters, where the chief Allied truce negotiator, Lt. Gen. William K. Harrison Jr., has been in daily conference since the talks were recessed Saturday.

Sources said if the talks collapse the U. N. might free as civilians 34,000 North Koreans who refuse to go home.

South Korea Tuesday called for liberation of these prisoners. The other 14,500 prisoners of the 48,500 are Chinese.

Doubt If Ike Would Accept Bid for Big Three Meeting

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's assertion that there is no reason to hope the Soviets have changed their aim of destroying freedom, left some doubt today that he would accept any Russian bid for a Big Three meeting.

London sources said British Prime Minister Churchill has been in informal touch with the Kremlin with the idea of arranging such a meeting. These informants said the Russians may respond with an invitation for a conference somewhere between Washington and Moscow.

The State Department press office said Tuesday it had no knowledge of any such informal contact by Churchill with the Soviet government. Officials also said the U. S. is not particularly interested in a meeting that would include only the U. S., Russia and Britain.

Implying that France and possibly other nations should be represented. Similar feeling was expressed by Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn.).

Eisenhower declared in his radio address to the nation Tuesday night he had little hope that the Russians have changed their course.

"We all know something of the long record of deliberately planned Communist aggression," he said. "There has been, to this moment, no reason to believe that Soviet policy has changed its frequently announced hope and purpose—the destruction of freedom everywhere."

Humphrey, a Senate Foreign Relations Committee member, said he believes that before any such conference is held "the foreign ministers of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization nations should meet and agree on the issues to be discussed at the proposed high level conference."

"The Soviet ambition is to break up NATO and we must not let them drive a wedge between us and our partners," he said.

High Court Bars Sales Tax On Materials for Services

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Efforts by the state to collect an extra 10 million dollars a year in sales tax revenue received a setback today from the Illinois Supreme Court.

The revenue involved was sought from sales of materials by suppliers to persons engaged in service occupations such as printing, building and similar businesses.

State Revenue Director Richard J. Lyons said it was clear that the court held "against the department" but that any comment beyond that would have to await careful examination of the opinions.

The court ruled on challenges to the broadened sales tax brought by the Material Service Corporation, a firm supplying contractors, and the Burrows Company, a medical supply house. Their positions were upheld.

The two concerns assailed regulations issued last Dec. 13 by the Revenue Department which applied the sales levy to service occupations.

Since then, Governor William G. Stratton's administration has submitted legislation, now pending, which is aimed at clarifying the department regulations and at the same time retain the 10 million extra sales tax income.

The opinions, written by Chief Justice Walter V. Schaefer, said the regulations were not properly applicable to the Material Service or Burrows firm because their sales could not be considered "sales at retail."

Strictly speaking, the state sales tax is a levy on the occupation of selling tangible property at retail. "As the act reads," Schaefer wrote in the Burrows case, "a person is not engaged in the business of selling at retail unless he transfers tangible personal property (1) for use or consumption and (2) not for resale in any form as tangible personal property."

No precise formula was given in the opinions for determining exactly which sales are subject to retail taxes.

The court ruled out any collection of taxes under the regulations on a retroactive basis where collections had been prohibited under lower court injunctions.

Truck Tax Bill Faces Opposition in House

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Governor Stratton's formula on truck license fees, a hands down winner in the senate, moved today to the house where stiffer opposition appeared in store.

The bill whizzed through the senate, rolling up a 36 to 8 margin on a passage roll call Tuesday. Only two members of the top-heavy Republican administration majority voted against it.

It provides for:
1. Rescinding eight million dollars a year increase in truck fees due to go into effect next January.

2. Retaining, with negligible adjustments, the 20 million dollar a year boost effective last year.

Restores Provision

3. Restoring the optional weight-mileage tax, which was chopped out of the truck act in 1951, as an alternative to the flat annual fee preferred by most operators.

Administration spokesmen on roads conceded that the bill would cut into highway construction revenue, but contended that some of the loss would be recaptured by another feature of the Stratton program.

This would require out-of-state haulers who make heavy use of Illinois highways to register part of their fleets in the state, and thereby contribute to road upkeep.

The senate-approved bill looked like a sure bet to be sent in the house to the motor vehicles committee, which has before it a half dozen rival proposals and has been marking time.

Proponents of a cutback in the existing scale of fees, which Stratton would leave unchanged, are strongly represented on the committee.

In the senate debate Tuesday, Sen. George Drach (R-Springfield) sounded the affirmative keynote.

Harvard Keeps Professor Who Was Commie

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—Harvard university today retained Associate Prof. Wendell H. Furry on its faculty but accused him of "grave misconduct" in belonging to the Communist party.

The Harvard University Corporation, the institution's chief governing body, said Tuesday night Furry will not be dismissed because the "misconduct" took place nine years ago.

The corporation found two other teachers, Helen Deane Markham and Leon J. Kannin, were guilty of misconduct but not grave misconduct and added that neither will be dismissed.

The corporation said Furry dropped out of the Communist party in 1947, 13 years after he was hired by Harvard; Kannin dropped out in 1950, before he became a teaching fellow, and "Dr. Markham is not, and never has been, a member of the Communist party."

All three had refused to tell congressional committees whether they were ever Communists.

A statement by the corporation said none of the three "has given a Communist slant to teaching, or has sought to influence the political thinking of students."

Senate Ball Team Whips House, 13-10

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—The Senate boxed the House's ears in their biennial softball contest Tuesday night, winning 13 to 10 as Governor Stratton played for both sides.

Stratton, favoring at second base, handled several fielding chances without a bobbie but failed to deliver in two appearances at the plates.

Senate sluggers produced the longest hits, triples by Donald J. O'Brien, Democrat, and Peter J. Miller, Republican, of Chicago. Miller hurled for the victors.

Stratton Signs Bill for Aid to Retarded Child when he said the bill would "give relief to the low mileage operator."

This referred to the weight-mileage feature. Under it, truckers electing to do so could pay half the annual flat fee and the remainder of their license obligation on mileage actually traveled.

Favored by Farmers

It would be up to the licensee to make monthly remittance for miles over a specified number covered by the downpayment. Farmers and seasonal highway users favor such an arrangement.

West Coast Woman Admits Kidnaping Tots in Capital

NEW YORK (AP)—A year-old girl, taken from her Washington home with her 2-year-old brother, was found today with the woman who, police said, admitted kidnaping the two children.

The woman, identified as Barbara Grimm, 24, of Tulare, Calif., was taken into custody by New York City police after a man who had befriended her became suspicious and telephoned authorities.

Doctors later examined the baby girl, Diane Bradford, and reported she was unharmed and apparently in good physical condition.

Her brother, Clifton Eugene Bradford, was found here in the Central Park Zoo Sunday and was identified Tuesday by their father Clifton Eugene Bradford Sr., a Washington mechanic.

Bradford, who had reported the children missing over the week end, came to New York after a traveler between New York and Washington connected photos of the boy appearing in newspapers in the two cities. The boy had spent 24 hours in the children's center here without anyone claiming him.

The Washington mechanic told police there that he met a blonde woman in a restaurant Friday, took her home to meet his family, and left her with the children while he and his wife went out for about 15 minutes. Bradford said the woman and children were gone when he and his wife returned.

Deputy Chief Inspector James B. Leggett of the New York police said Miss Grimm "has a mother complex" and had lost a baby of her own.

He also said the Manhattan district attorney's office and FBI agents were conferring in an attempt to determine what charges would be placed against the woman.

She was quoted as saying she had been drinking Friday and "blacked out," not remembering anything until she awoke on a train in Philadelphia.

U. S. Pilots Down 692 Red Jets in War

SEOUL (AP)—The U. S. Air Force today reported 692 Russian built MIG15 jet fighters have been destroyed in the Korean War.

All but 17 were credited to Sabre jets.

And Sabres were credited with more than 90 per cent of the 126 MIGs probably destroyed and 860 damaged.

The Air Force said 55 Sabres had been lost in combat with MIGs.

Why that 675-55 superiority? Lt. Gen. Glenn O. Barcus, soon to retire as Fifth Air Force commander, says:

"1. The Sabre is a better plane than the MIG.
"2. Americans are better pilots than the enemy."
Most American pilots agree on both points.

It's Not So that U. S. Males Are Poor Lovers

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (U)—American men are getting a name for being the world's best husbands—and among the world's poorest lovers.

This ugly rumor is based on a theory that the average European male understands a woman's heart and an American doesn't. But more and more American wives are accepting it as true.

Well, girls, it just isn't so. It isn't likely that anywhere on the freckled earth you'll find a man who knows you as well, appreciates you more, or will love you better than here in the home of the henpecked hubby.

Not so!

"We have overemphasized this belief that American men are not good lovers, and their wives are all frustrated," said Renzo Cesana, who woos and sometimes vows the ladies in his television and radio role, "The Continental."

Renzo, a six-foot sophisticated realist, has made something of a study of romance in both his native Italy and his adopted land, America.

He feels that too many women have read Dr. Kinsey's clinical study of the American male and reached the conclusion they are missing some of the finer things of life through husbandly ignorance or ineptitude.

"The European woman is as frustrated as the American woman if not more so," he said. "But she simply doesn't get the chance to protest as loud."

Cesana left the impression he believes the women of all countries will feel frustrated—if they can find a reason.

Poll Europeans!

"The American has no reason to have an inferiority complex about sex," he said. "If Dr. Kinsey polled European men about matters of love, and they told him the truth, he would find them much less informed than American men."

"But they wouldn't tell him the truth. They would simply brag. When it comes to affairs of the heart, a European would lie to his own psychiatrist."

But don't American husbands take their wives for granted? Aren't Europeans more romantic and gallant?

"It is the other way around,"

Poses as Pastor To Free Robber

JONESBORO, Ark. (U)—An Illinois man who was said to have posed as a minister in order to visit a bank robber in jail is accused of attempting to help the robber escape.

Sheriff Lonnie Cooper said Tuesday that Robert E. Williams of Christopher, Ill., was arrested Monday in Poplar Bluff, Ark., after escaping while the sheriff disarmed the robber and stopped the attempted March 10 jailbreak.

Cooper said Williams, 27, is accused of smuggling guns to the robber, Vernon James, 21, of St. Louis, who was sentenced Tuesday to 15 years in federal prison. James was sentenced for the $33,000 robbery of the Bank of Reyno, Ark., last December.

Two Demos To Fight Cut In Aid Funds

WASHINGTON (U)—Two Democratic senators said today they would fight vigorously any attempts to cut the Eisenhower administration's $5,800,000,000 foreign aid program for next year.

The senators' Humphrey of Minnesota and Sparkman of Alabama, both serve on the foreign relations committee, which has virtually completed its hearings on the measure to authorize the mutual assistance program for the new fiscal year starting July 1.

Humphrey predicted in an interview that all seven Democrats on the committee would support the bill.

The group's chairman, Sen. Wiley (R-Miss.), also has indicated he will back the full sum sought by President Eisenhower.

Sparkman said the administration has been emphasizing it already has cut the program to the bone in lopping off $1,800,000,000 of the $7,600,000,000 asked by former President Truman.

PHILADELPHIA (U)—Mrs. Evelyn Rice, 30, drew the curtain on a voting machine and was all set to cast her ballot in the primary election Tuesday.

Suddenly, she said, a hand reached under the curtain and began pulling levers she had not intended to pull.

Asst. Dist. Atty. Leon Katz said the hand belonged to Charles Travis, 41, who was arrested on a charge of illegal assistance in a polling booth. Travis was held in $500 bail for the grand jury.

Ike Explains Talk on TV

WASHINGTON (U)—Listeners who wanted a bit of explanation of the speech they heard President Eisenhower deliver by radio Tuesday night had only to flip a television switch and get it—from Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Immediately after he finished his radio speech the President was on the air over TV, quoting from it and discussing somewhat less formally the issues raised.

Actually, the TV program—which was for newsreel use also—was filmed some seven hours earlier.

Three NCIC Meets Listed for Weekend

Rate Dixon Favorite in Net Match

Rochelle Choice to Retain Golf Title; Ottawa in Track

Ottawa. Dixon and Rochelle are favored to win championships over the weekend in North Central conference meets, all at Sterling.

Ottawa ranks as top choice in the track meet which begins at 5 p. m. Friday while Dixon is pegged to repeat in tennis and Rochelle in golf.

All schools are expected to enter the track meet. Seven full golf teams will participate along with Truman Nehls, Geneseo's only entrant.

In tennis, four teams have full squads while DeKalb will send one man.

Ottawa's Roger Severson, top dash man who pulled a leg muscle in the district meet, will not run in the 100 yard dash, it was revealed.

Severson has been entered only in the 220 yard dash and the broad jump and the Ottawa eligibility list has the comment, "if able."

District Winners The loss of Severson will hurt, but not seriously impair Ottawa's chances of winning the meet.

The Pirates still have three district winners on the squad in Renwick, high jump; Bownier, discus and Shipman, high hurdles.

Other district winners who will be entered are Starnes, Rochelle, discus; Peaseley, Mendota, shot; and the Princeton mile relay team, Farley, Mercer, Marks and Gleason.

Dixon's hopes will ride on Kay Draper in the 100, 880 yard relay and the 220, broad jump or high jump. With Severson out, the way is pretty well cleared for the Dixon dash man if he gets out of the starting blocks fast enough.

Mendota, Rock Falls and Princeton are expected to push Ottawa for the track crown this year with Dixon and Sterling standing outside chances if the points fall the right way.

Henry Utley, Dixon, is favored to win the singles tennis crown this year though little is known of the calibre of the Ottawa club. Henry has won matches against the top Rochelle and Sterling men and it is expected that at least Rochelle will use its number one man in the doubles.

Top Doubles Galen Kruger, Hub number one man and Burley Smith, number two, are listed as leading contenders in the doubles competition.

Kruger and Smith have beaten both the Dixon and Sterling doubles aces.

Dixon will send Joe Cushing as its second singles player while Bennie Sage and Joe Jones will play one doubles with Norman Glenn and either Bob Bay, Jack Hippie or Jim Bruce will make up the second doubles.

Then tennis match will get under way at 9 a.m. Saturday morning at Sterling.

Golf Title Five men teams will compete for the golf crown with the scores of the lowest four being counted for the team total.

Rochelle is favored in this department with Jim Slothower, Don Meanger and George Schofield leading the list.

The matches will be held at the Emerald Hill golf course with the first group teeing off at 8 a.m. Saturday. Princeton and Mendota will not be represented at this match.

Works Overtime PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Chicago White Sox' ace reliever, Harry Dorish, is working overtime this year.

Dorish, who worked in 39 games in 1952, already has appeared in 11 this season.

ACTION GALORE AT THE PLATE—Wes Westrum, New York Giants catcher, is safe at home in the third inning of game with Chicago Cubs in Chicago as he sends Cubs Catcher Toby Atwell flying. Even Toby's mitt goes into the air. The play came when Davey Williams grounded to Cubs Third Baseman Bill Serena, who whipped the ball to Atwell. (AP photo)

Bums Knock Braves Out of First Again

Phils, Cards, Giants Win in NL; Sox Lose, Yanks, Boston Win

By The Associated Press In full view of the largest crowd ever to pay its way in to a sports event in the Wisconsin metropolis, the Brooklyn Dodgers slapped down the Braves Tuesday night, 4-1, and knocked them out of a first-place tie.

Even if the wrong team did win, the Milwaukee folks saw a real good ball game. The Braves broke it open in the sixth, after five scoreless innings, when Andy Pafko singled home Eddie Mathews.

But with the cheers of the 36,439 loyal fans still echoing, George Shuba sent Brooklyn ahead with a home run after Jackie Robinson had walked.

The Dodgers got two more runs off Max Surkont in the eighth on Duke Snider's sixth homer of the season, a blast that scored Pee Wee Reese.

Phillies Up While the Braves went down, the Philadelphia Phillies went up. Rob in Roberts checked the Cincinnati Red Legs, 6-3, for his sixth victory against two defeats and moved the Phils one full game in front of the Braves.

The St. Louis Cardinals edged the Pittsburgh Pirates, 2-1, and the New York Giants won their third in a row, 6-4, over the Chicago Cubs in 10 innings.

Hank Bauer homered in the 11th inning with a man on base to give the New York Yankees a hard-earned 4-2 triumph over the lowly Detroit Tigers while the second-place Chicago White Sox lost their second in a row, a two-hit 2-1 verdict to Harry Byrd and the Philadelphia Athletics. The loss pushed the Sox two games back of the pace-setting Yankees.

Lindell Beaten The Boston Red Sox defeated the St. Louis Browns, 4-3. Cleveland's game with the Senators at Washington was rained out.

Johnny Lindell, the onetime New York Yankee outfielder who came back to the majors this season as a knuckleball pitcher, gave the Cardinals only five hits and struck out eight. Both St. Louis runs were unearned.

The Giants came from two runs behind to tie their game with the Cubs in the fifth inning, then caught fire for three more runs in the 10th to hand Warren Hacker his sixth loss of the season.

The White Sox managed only two singles off Byrd, last season's Rookie of the Year in the American league. Jim Rivera singled in the third inning to drive in the Sox' only run and Rocky Krsnich got the other safety in the fourth.

A double by Tom Umphlett followed by Milt Bolling's single gave the Red Sox their winning run in the eighth inning against the Browns. The hits came off Satchell Paige, a loser for the second time in a week.

BOWLING BULLETIN Joe and June Kristof will be unable to come to Dixon Recreation tonight and at this late hour, no other substitution can be arranged. Joe is bowling in the masters' tourney in the ABC in Chicago, and still in the winners bracket, a schedule switch forces him to bowl tonight making it impossible to appear here. Accordingly no exhibition is planned for the Recreation this afternoon. The banquet starts at 6:30 p. m. at the American Legion hall, with a dance following at the Dixon Country Club.

LaStarza Has Edge in Move To Meet Rocky

NEW YORK (AP)—Roland LaStarza may have a slight edge on Ezzard Charles in the maneuvering to get the next crack at heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano.

More light may be shed on the matter today or Thursday when promoter Jim Norris and Al Weill, Marciano's manager, resume talks about Rocky's future foe.

The two conferred for an hour Tuesday but said nothing definite was decided. Both are agreed Rocky's opponent must be either Charles or LaStarza.

If a heavyweight title fight is made for September, Weill said he would prefer to go without home television. Norris said he would like to give the TV sponsors a chance to bid for it.

Braves Should Top Attendance Mark Last Year, Today

MILWAUKEE (AP)—This is the day the Milwaukee Braves were due to surpass in home attendance the entire 1952 total the team drew in Boston.

With Tuesday night's turnout of 36,439—a record in paid attendance for a sports event in Milwaukee—the Braves have drawn a total of 279,217 at home so far. The 1952 total at Boston was 281,278.

Hacker Fails to End Jinx, Loses Extra Inning Tilt to Giants, 6-3

CHICAGO (AP)—Warren Hacker's string of hard-luck pitching continued Tuesday.

The Chicago Cub righthander lost his sixth game in seven outings as the New York Giants splurged for three runs in the 10th inning and beat the Cubs 6-4.

Four of Hacker's previous losses were on shutouts.

Against the Giants, Hacker allowed only three hits over the regulation nine innings and would have been the winner except for a two-base Cub error that led to a Giant run in the fifth inning, tying the score at 3-3.

Giants Score Three When the game went into overtime, Hacker weakened and the Giants scored three runs on four hits. Ransom Jackson hit a homer in the Cub half of the tenth but that was as far as the Cubs could go.

WHAT'S THE SCORE by Norm Follow

Whitney Martin has an interesting and cleverly written article on what he has done to help other golfers beat Julius Boros. I think I'll let him tell it himself.

By WHITNEY MARTIN LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y.—It now is fairly definite that this correspondent won't get an "I beat Julius Boros" medal this year. But we'll feel a little hurt if the nation's hackers who will match their scores with his on National Golf Day next Saturday don't strike off a special medal for us. Gold, too.

We've done them a tremendous favor. We've softened up the National Open champion so he'll never be the same. He should be a pushover when he plays the Oakmont Course in the open at Pittsburgh.

HERE'S THE WAY WE DID IT. A few days ago we were asked if we would like to play a round with Big Jay at the press outing of the Deepdale club Monday, with our score, with a modest handicap of say, 35 strokes, to count as our National Golf Day round.

That gave us a little time to scout him, so we trailed him in the round robin tournament last week to spot his weakness. We found it. Two-foot putts.

As always, Julius was very pleasant and affable as we stepped on the first tee. We noted he was using a Babe Zaharias driver, so we figured this was a soft touch. Imagine a big guy like that using a woman's club.

HE MANAGED TO GET OFF the first tee fairly well, and three strokes later, when we had caught up with his drive, we stood there and watched him put his second into a trap. We were nowhere near the trap, even on our fourth. Sheer carelessness on his part.

Quite by accident he managed to blast out and sink his putt for his par, and it was sheer coincidence that the same thing happened on the second hole.

AND SO IT WENT. The luckiest guy you ever saw. When we started looking for his ball after his second shot on the par fours we'd find it on the green. Hole high. Or if it was trapped, his third would leave him a "gimme" putt.

WE WERE SLIGHTLY HANDICAPPED. Somewhere we had acquired the pleasant habit of conceding ourselves trivial putts of four feet or so, and taking mulligans off the tee. You'd be surprised how your score mounts when you can't do these things.

Julius was wobbling slightly when we came up to the 18th green. He barely managed to hole out for a par 35 coming in. He was three over going out with a 38, so our 35 handicap was just right. It brought us from 108 to 73 to match his score.

YESSIR, WE PLUMB WORE HIM OUT so you folks playing him next Saturday will have a soft touch. Just put up your dollar and the medal practically is yours, particularly if your handicap brings your score down to about 66, which he could have had Monday if he had been putting.

WHILE ON THE SUBJECT OF GOLF, Mt. Morris and Rochelle Country clubs battled it out Sunday with Mt. Morris coming out on top.

Sunday, Mt. Morris played to hold its second annual crazy golf tournament in which golfers are put to ghastly tests to prove their mettle.

AMONG THE STUNTS COOKED UP for the day are hitting off the tee with baseball bats, hitting to a circle on the fairway and then chipping to the green, putting into a cup raised on the green.

Joe Hiscoux, sports chairman, reports that the tournament is open to the public.

OUT OF DOORS with Field & Stream Day and Night Life

By AL McCLANE Fishing Editor In North Carolina, the fish-management boys have developed a new feeding program, so that the state is now producing two pounds of hatchery trout for what it cost to raise one pound three years ago.

They are growing 9 to 10-inch trout in 15 months instead of two years. In Utah, the high cost of feed and disappearance of horse meat got the experts hopping, and they came up with a process for the utilization of trash fish such as carp and chubs mixed in trout feeds.

New Hampshire is getting more and better brood stock by using artificial daylight. It's no news to chicken farmers, but the fish boys discovered that if they gave a parent trout a longer "day" early in the winter by the use of electric lights over the hatchery, they could shorten the daylight come summer and thus stimulate fall.

Light is one of the determining factors in spawning, and being fall spawners the trout developed their eggs by August—because they think it's October. New York state is stepping up its salmon program, trying to establish new waters for landlocked salmon and Pacific sockeye. Most of this work is top secret.

State Legislators Plan Investigation Of Walcott Fight SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—The Illinois legislature has been asked to investigate the Walcott-Marciano fight, which two lawmakers said "cast a dark shadow on the reputation of the fistic sport."

In the heavyweight match, Rocky Marciano retained the world championship by knocking out Jersey Joe Walcott in the first round last Friday in Chicago.

"Sports loving Americans were shocked and dismayed by the fiasco," declared Reps. John B. Monroe (D-Macomb) and Paul A. Zeigler (D-Carmi) in a resolution Tuesday demanding an inquiry. The legislators called for a probe by a group of their number and recommendations by June 20 "to insure that such an occurrence is never repeated in Illinois."

ELIZABETH the Queen

By Marion Crawford
Former Governess to Her Majesty

© 1932 BY PRENTICE HALL, INC.
DISTRIBUTED BY NEA SERVICE

At the age of 18 Princess Elizabeth came of age and achieved the dignity of a "household" of her own, although she continued to live at the palace.

For her it was the official end of girlhood and the beginning of her career as an important public figure. From then on, as one of the four consellers of state who would act for the King in his absence or other emergencies, she would take an increasing part in public affairs.

She was at the age when other girls could expect to enjoy new freedom of choice and action, to make new friends and to go about with them. For the Princess, her coming out meant also the assumption of new and heavy responsibilities.

It came to pass shortly before the Allied landing in Normandy—when many Royal activities had to be veiled in wartime secrecy.

For example, nothing could be revealed publicly of the visit the whole Royal family made to H.M.S. King George V at Greenock, or of the Princess' return to Scotland a few weeks later, to launch at Clydebank the world's greatest battleship Vanguard, which in peacetime was to take the King and Queen and their daughters to South Africa.

That memorable tour was a fore-shadowing of the visit of Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip, as Duke and Duchess of Edinburgh, to Canada and the United States.

But already, at 18, she had been assigned her own armorial bearings, consisting of the Royal Arms differenced by her own heraldic bearings, displayed on a lozenge instead of a shield—and her own Standard which flew wherever she went in Canada and the United States. It is the Standard which flew above Clarence House when she was at home.

From the end of the war Princess Elizabeth had her own ladies-in-waiting and her own private secretary. And immediately after her marriage General Sir Frederick Browning, K.B.E., C.B., D.S.O., was appointed comptroller to her household.

Sir Frederick was best known for his gallantry and tenacity in command of the airborne troops who fought to heroically at Arnhem. Married to the famous novelist, Daphne du Maurier, he was living quietly with her in Cornwall when he was summoned to Clarence House.

Princess Elizabeth's room in Buckingham Palace. At the age of 18, she was permitted to have her own staff.

I had personal reasons to be pleased to hear of his appointment for I cherished an association with his charming sister, Miss Grace Browning, from the days when Princess Elizabeth and Princess Margaret, as children at Buckingham Palace, were enthusiastic members of the palace company of Girl Guides.

There was some talk among the household about it. Some people wondered why such a man should accept a comparatively self-effacing post when others with far more opportunity for personal advantage must have been open to him.

But I welcomed the appearance of an experienced man whose interests lay outside court routine. I thought he would bring Princess Elizabeth a breath of air from the world outside. It is hard for a Princess nurtured in the household of a palace to get a true sense of values.

I had always tried to show her that palace life was not like that which others led, and in her careful, considerate way she had listened to me.

Some time later I received a note from Sir Frederick. Would I kindly meet him so that he could learn a little about the character of the Princess? He had been told that I was the best person to approach, and remembering what his sister had told him about me, he looked forward to the meeting.

I replied that I would be delighted to give what information I could. But must have hinted at the thought which members of the household had been puzzling about. Why should he, a man of action and ability, choose such a comparatively sedentary position?

I had a charming little letter posted from the house in Cornwall in which he and his wife, Daphne du Maurier, were living. It was dated Jan. 10, 1948.

I do not think you need assuming that, when I was approached about being Princess Elizabeth's comptroller, I realized very fully that I was undertaking what I consider to be the most honorable and important appointment which could be offered to anyone in the world.

The sincerity of that paragraph made me more than ever keen to meet him. Here was someone, I felt, who would be coming to Princess Elizabeth full of enthusiasm for the job.

Minimum Pay Bill for Cops Passes House

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (P)—A bill virtually doubling minimum salaries of policemen in downstate cities Tuesday passed the Illinois house by a vote of 95 to 36. It moves to the senate.

The minimums now provided are $150 a month in cities of 10,000 to 25,000 population and $175 in those of the 25,000 to 150,000 range. Under the bill sponsored by Rep. Carl Soderstrom (R-Streator), they would be fixed at $300 in cities of 5,000 to 25,000 population, $325 in the 25,000 to 75,000 range and $350 in the 75,000 to 150,000 bracket.

Rep. William G. Burnsmier (R-Mason City), Rep. Ben S. Rhodes (R-Bloomington) and other opponents said hard-up city governments could not meet the additional salary expense. "Anybody voting for this bill should vote for a city sales tax," Burnsmier said. He is against a pending bill to allow cities by council action to levy a local sales tax of one half per cent.

Writer Goes to Movies With Senator McCarthy

By ED CREEGH
WASHINGTON—(P)—When you go to the movies with Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy you're in for a confusing afternoon. The Wisconsin Republican was unimpressed Tuesday at a double feature shown in the Capitol's old Supreme Court Chamber. McCarthy, as chairman of the Senate investigations subcommittee, arranged the production to give fellow senators and newsmen a look at movies made by one Julien Bryan, who makes films for the State Department, among other people.

35 Attend
About 35 people showed up, not counting a few touring school children who dropped in later. Promptly at the appointed hour the projector began whirring and on the screen flashed the title: "Peoples of the Soviet Union—Revised Version." Seven minutes later, McCarthy came in. "Uh-huh," he told Bryan "Show the original version first." "But—" said Bryan. "Show the original version first," McCarthy directed.

So Bryan did and the point of the proceedings began to emerge. As originally made in 1945-46, when the U. S. and the USSR were pretty friendly, "Peoples of the Soviet Union" gave a homey version of the Communists—lots of churches, flowers, cultural goings on. No secret police, no slave labor camps, not a single weapon being made.

It Was Revised
But, said Bryan, 18 months ago he revised the film—kept the original pictures but wrote a whole new sound track giving a different focus on the Russians. If the senator would wait and see the revised version—

McCarthy wouldn't. Said he had business elsewhere. "It's taken 33 minutes to show the original version," Bryan objected. "Can I have three minutes to tell about the changes that were made?" "Sure," grinned McCarthy. "Take four minutes." So Bryan read rapidly from the script, featuring new references to "a huge standing army," to "unions run by the government," to "religious activities closely supervised." "Yes, that's an improvement," McCarthy said. He lingered long enough to see the start of a second film, a color

Happy Is The Day When Backache Goes Away . . .

Nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness may be due to slow-down of kidney function. Doctors say good kidney function is very important to good health. When some every day condition, such as stress and strain, causes this important function to slow down, many folks suffer nagging backache—feel miserable. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages. Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. It's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief from these discomforts—help the millions of kidneys and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

Wayne is disputing his estranged mate's demand for $9,000 a month alimony pending trial of her suit for separate maintenance. His wife, former actress Esperanza Bauer, estimates his income at $500,000 a year and says they spent more than $13,000 monthly during their six-year marriage.

Made $200,000 A Year, Wife Spends It All

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—"I know it sounds ridiculous," John Wayne told the court, but he and his wife "Just couldn't make ends meet" on his income of several hundred thousand dollars a year.

In 1951, for instance, the rugged actor testified Tuesday, his wife's being jabbed repeatedly with the needle that his adrenal functioning took a big jump. Anger affects the adrenals much the same as fright. The patient now is on the road to recovery.

Another patient with low adrenal activity was being prepared for a minor lung operation. His fellow patients kidded him into believing that the doctors were going to take a whole lung, not just a small part of it. He became so scared that his adrenal activity soared. This "lift" helped him through with flying colors, Dr. Clarke said.

DENVER—(AP)—A 3-year-old boy fell three stories Monday and landed on his head.

Harold Brown was rushed from his home, where he fell, to a hospital. Doctors examined him and sent him home again. He wasn't hurt.

Fright Good For TB, Say Coast Medics

By RENNIE TAYLOR
AP Science Reporter

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—Fright apparently is good medicine for some tubercular people.

Several cases in which a good scare favorably turned the course of treatment for sanitarium patients were reported to the National Tuberculosis Association today by a group of Seattle physicians.

This strange finding was the result of experiments to determine what part the adrenal gland plays in the role of the disease. The work was done by Dr. Edmund R. Clarke, Dr. Daniel W. Zahn and Dr. Thomas H. Holmes of Firlan Sanitarium, Seattle.

The Seattle doctors found that people with basically low levels of adrenal activity appeared to have more serious TB cases than those with high levels.

One patient, Dr. Clarke said, was being kept alive by great effort, and a part of the treatment included injections with a hypodermic needle. He became so angered at

Broyles Claims Anti-Red Bills Will Be Passed

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—(AP)—Sen. Paul Broyles of Mt. Vernon yesterday clung to a prediction that his anti-subversive bills will pass the Legislature, despite growing signs of strong opposition ahead.

The Republican senator said he doesn't believe published reports that Governor Stratton has decided to let the bills lie in the House.

"I have every confidence of them passing," Broyles told a reporter.

Stratton commented in Chicago Monday that the bills were not part of his administration program. He said a state crime commission which he is proposing could undertake any investigation of communism.

The legislation, which passed the Senate, is listed for a House Judiciary Committee hearing today.

One of the bills would impose heavy prison sentences for attempting to overthrow the government or belonging to a subversive organization. It also would require loyalty statements from public employees.

The second measure calls for creating a legislative commission to investigate seditious activities.

Broyles said although he has not talked to Stratton about the controversial bills since last February, he got the impression then the governor would support them.

"I don't believe the governor has changed his mind," Broyles added. "We campaigned last fall on cleaning up communism and corruption. Communism was number one. I expect to support the platform I campaign on."

Commentator Quits 'Voice'

NEW YORK—(AP)—Radio commentator Raymond Swing, resigning his job as political analyst for the Voice of America, said Tuesday the agency is crippled "by slanderous attacks on its integrity."

He adds that the State Department is guilty of "spineless failure . . . to stand by its own staff."

The Voice is part of the State Department.
